Ms. Nicole Hennig Leads “Internet of Things (IoT) for Libraries” Workshop

Abu Dhabi, UAE, March 3–4, 2019

Naseej Academy, in collaboration with the Special Libraries Association – Arabian Gulf Chapter (SLA–AGC), is pleased to offer a workshop entitled “Internet of Things (IoT) for Libraries”. The workshop will be moderated by Ms. Nicole Hennig, an Independent User Experience Professional of Boston, MA and Tucson, AZ.

The workshop will be held on March 3–4, 2019, at the Dusit Thani Hotel, Abu Dhabi, UAE, and will precede the SLA–AGC’s 25th Annual Conference & Exhibition.

The workshop will address the concept of Internet of Things, and examine how the different technologies that make up IoT can be used in libraries.

Workshop participants will also gain a general understanding of privacy and security issues, smart speakers and voice computing, and automation with the If This Then That (IFTTT) service.
To register, and for more information:
Please visit: http://success.naseej.com/2019slaagc-IoT-AcLib

About Ms. Nicole Hennig
Ms. Nicole Hennig is an Independent User Experience Professional from Boston, MA and Former Head, User Experience Group, MIT Libraries, Cambridge, MA.
Ms. Hennig is an expert in emerging technologies for libraries. During her 14 years with Massachusetts Institute of Technology, she upgraded MIT Libraries’ services and successfully executed dozens of projects and initiatives to keep academics up to date with the latest mobile technologies. Her innovations earned her a number of awards. Ms. Hennig now runs her own business in the field of emerging and localization of technologies within libraries. She is the author of several books, including: Apps for Librarians: Using the Best Mobile Technology to Educate, Create and Engage (2014); Keeping Up with Emerging Technologies (2017); and Siri, Alexa, and other Digital Assistants: The Librarian’s Quick Guide (2018).

About Naseej Academy
Naseej Academy is a non-profit initiative that seeks to support and develop the leadership of the information, knowledge and higher education sectors in the Arab world by offering a comprehensive range of courses, workshops and continuing education programs in cooperation with local, regional and international organizations.